

Yolo County Co-Responder Program

A Health and Human Services and
Law Enforcement Partnership

Karleen Jakowski, LMFT

Mental Health Director

History of Crisis Response in Yolo County

Mobile Crisis (1981-2011)

Crisis Intervention Training (2008 to Present)

SB82 Co-Responder Grant (2014-2017)

Mental Health Urgent Care (2017-2020)

Diverting Drug Charges (2020 to Present)

Co-Responder Program (2020 to Present)

Crisis Now (Launching in 2023)

Co-Responder Model

01

Model: Co-responder clinicians embedded with local law enforcement jurisdictions throughout Yolo County

- Davis Police Department (1 Clinician; Monday-Thursday)
 - Sheriff/Probation (1 Clinician; Tuesday-Friday)
 - West Sacramento Police Department (2 Clinicians; Wednesday-Sunday and Sunday-Wednesday)
 - Woodland Police Department (2 Clinicians; Monday-Friday)
-

02

Funding: Cost-sharing agreement with approximately 50% of the staffing costs for each position supported by partner agencies; remaining staffing costs and administrative support covered by HHSA

03

Future Improvements: Transition to Clinician + Peer Model and Implementation of Crisis Now

Specialized Crisis Response Vehicles

Co-Responder Data

Calls for Service, Trend, All

Count of Referrals FY20/21 and FY21/22

Co-Responder Data

Reported Situation

Total Calls, All
1,710

Unique People
866

Yolo County Coresponder Team Dashboard

CRISIS TEAM DATA DASHBOARD

Calls for Service Trend, All

Reported Situation

Average Time on Scene

Referring Party

Calls Per Day in Service

MH Link

Time on Scene, Percent of Calls Received

Arrested

SUD Link

5150

Housing link

